Resident Spotlight

Parkland Ancaster's full continuum of Lifestyle options helps seniors and their loved ones live in the same community while needing different levels of care.

Meet Parkland residents, Gordon and Barbara who moved into a Lifestyle Apartment at our community in Etobicoke, Parkland on Eglinton West. Soon after, they realized Barbara would benefit from more support when her dementia progressed. Choosing a home where they could both live despite needing different levels of care was an essential factor for the couple. Each day, Gordon can go see his wife on the Memory Care floor to help her get ready, take her to get her hair done at the on-site spa or get tea and coffee for her and her friends.

Gordon says their transition has been enjoyable, noting that the team at Parkland has been a great help with the transition.

Parkland's team members are committed to a smooth transition for every resident joining a Parkland community.
